FEATURED PROGRAM

CONNECTING WITH CONFIDENCE

Ever wonder why some people seem to move forward in their careers while you seem stuck? Why no one seems to think your great idea will work? Does it seem as if no one's listening to what you say? Maybe they're not - because you aren't really connecting when you communicate.

Talk is cheap. Everyone does it. The question is, how can you make your words matter and influence any outcome? How can you REALLY connect with others?

After this training, you will understand how connecting increases your influence in every situation and be on your way to confidently connecting with many people in your life.

Participants will explore:

- ▶ the difference between communicating and connecting
- ▶ how to confidently connect in situations throughout your career and life
- ▶ what actions can be taken immediately to build stronger connections that will increase their success

About Brittanni

Your confidence strategist and professional coach.

I am an MBA graduate, certified John Maxwell Team coach, speaker, and trainer. My personal mission is to develop and cultivate the qualities of confidence, inspiration, and overall well-being so that I am able to live each day with success and enjoy life to the fullest. I will do this by leading with daily intention, eliminating negative habits, and giving selflessly to enrich not only my life, but also the lives of those around me.

Growing up as a bi-racial girl in a blended family in Houston, TX, I spent most of my younger years trying to find my place. Personal success has always been important to me because of my desire to "prove that I can". I remember a young boy telling me in grade school that I was stupid because I had a white mother and a black father. That was tough to hear as a child and I didn't understand why he felt that way, or who else felt that way. From that point on, I lived my life in a state of constant fear that I just would not be good enough for anyone unless I worked hard enough to get the best grades, the most awards and the most recognition.

That is not the way we are meant to live.

I spent my college years working in a Corporate role and completed my MBA while continuing the struggle to truly find my place. After I was able to identify the motivations I had to do so much more, I began to realize that I could not continue living my life for other people. I had to begin living for myself, and that is the best decision that I have ever made. Life is too short to live anything less than your absolute best. We should live our lives full of intention and own our happiness. Now is the time to unleash your fears, dream bigger, and become your best self.

I coach fierce and independent women through programs structured to help them identify the areas in their life that are holding them back from living their dreams. Take back control of your time, your financial situation, and create healthier habits that will help to elevate your career. Are you with me? Let's do this.

Personal Coaching Services

When we engage in personal coaching sessions, we will discuss the topic of your choice. Additionally, we will complete a self-assessment of your time inventory and daily routine. This will help to increase job satisfaction and motivation; clarify and work toward performance goals; help to achieve new skills and competencies to become more effective; and prepare you for new responsibilities.

Many people lack a true support system and I thrive by truly being there to personally support my clients through the goals we have set together. I will keep you accountable, provide you with first hand insight to some of the most invaluable information from many of my personal trainings from inspiring leaders such as John C. Maxwell, Christian Simpson, and Chalene Johnson.

We will take inventory of your daily habits, your schedule, and identify proven solutions to get you back on track. You will leave each session feeling motivated, inspired, and equipped with the information and tools you need to start making changes immediately.
